Aprašymas:

We have several exiting clients with different types of projects and we are looking for different roles with development (coding, engineers) business analysts and project managers.

All our roles demands working in Sweden from monday-friday or monday-thursday. We will cover travel and expenses for apartment.

This is an exiting opportunity for someone who wants to work with both startups and large companies in Sweden.

You will be hired by Ammi Group and either work at one of our clients site or work in-house with our products.

Our employees have great career opportunities working with us and our clients.
