Personal Statement

Leonard is great at spotting most tiny details in everything he is up to. Have a good sense of humor, excellent communication skills and work hard to achieve great results. He always seeks knowledge in domain he is working and never stop learning new skills. Although he is perfectionist he always tries to guide the rule of "good enough" and Pareto 80/20 principle. Even though sometimes he is stubborn, who believes in something and seems to know that it is right thing to do, however, he will listen and heard other opinions around him.
